

Join the Kettle's Yard Music Committee!

Could you be our student representative?

We are looking for a student representative to join the Kettle's Yard Music Committee for the academic year 2026/27.

Kettle's Yard Music offers a highly successful series of concerts in the Kettle's Yard house featuring Chamber Music, New Music and Student Music. We are looking for a student to be a voice for student interests on our committee of music enthusiasts and industry professionals.

This is a wonderful opportunity to gain experience of high-level committee work and concert management, which includes working with the Centre for Music Performance on the programming and production of the Student Music concerts, and to help shape music performance at Kettle's Yard.

This voluntary role is open to any student at the University of Cambridge who is passionate about music and interested in the arts.

Can you:

- Represent students and student interests on the Kettle's Yard Committee?
- Commit to attending approximately three Kettle's Yard Committee meetings a year?
- Contribute to discussions on future activities?
- Champion Kettle's Yard concerts to fellow students?
- Assist in stewarding concerts when required?

Student Music at Kettle's Yard. Photo: Paul Ashley

Are you:

- Passionate about music-making?
- Organised and efficient?
- Confident and persuasive?

You could be our next Music Committee Student Representative.

How to apply:

Email a copy of your CV to music@kettlesyard.cam.ac.uk with a brief covering letter explaining your interest in the role and what you could offer Kettle's Yard. Please put 'Student Representative application' in the subject line.

Closing date for applications Tuesday 5 May.

Interviews will ideally take place in person, at Kettle's Yard, afternoon of Wednesday 13 May.

For any queries, please email Deborah Carnwath, Kettle's Yard Music Associate, on music@kettlesyard.cam.ac.uk.

For further information about music at Kettle's Yard: www.kettlesyard.cam.ac.uk/music